- Network Security
- Information Security
- DBMS
- Cybersecurity Fundamentals

PROJECTS

Precision-Based Water Irrigation Technique

- Developed an innovative solution using hyperspectral imaging technology to optimize water usage in agriculture.
- Utilized programming languages (Python, C++) for data analysis and visualization of irrigation patterns.
- Successfully implemented a prototype that demonstrated a 20% increase in water efficiency, contributing to sustainable agricultural practices.
- Employed Python libraries such as NumPy and Pandas for efficient data manipulation and Matplotlib to create visual representations of irrigation patterns

FloraTrack App (Diploma Capstone Project)

- Developed a plant care and identification mobile app using QR code technology.
- Features include watering alerts, fertilizer status, health benefits search, and offline access.
- Designed a scalable, user-friendly interface for use in gardening, nurseries, and forest departments.
- Integrated a mobile vision library to implement the QR code scanning functionality, enabling quick and seamless plant identification from the device's camera.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Google Student Ambassador
- Content Creator Head at Blackbox AI Club
- Budget Management Head at TEDx
- Program coordinator of Razzmatazz.
